Information Sheet for Troops

Come one, come all to this extravaganza celebrating Girl Scouting's past, present and future! You can come as a troop, and even make it an outing for families, too. It's ok if only some people in your troop want to come. You are encouraged to invite Girl Scout alumnae to come with you to join in the fun, too.

Your group is welcome to come and partake in the wide variety of activities, presentations, and games and simply enjoy the fun and friendly sisterhood of Girl Scouting. If you prefer, you can also sign up to be an exhibitor or host an interactive activity. Check our website for the most up-to-date information and the schedule of activities: www.gsmid-south.org/95thcelebration

The afternoon will be featuring some favorite Girl Scout traditions, too. There will be a Sing Along beginning at 6:00 pm just before the closing ceremony begins at 6:30, complete with a campfire. Girls are encouraged to come with about 10 swaps – to trade with some of their new-found sister Girl Scouts.

Each service unit will be assigned a section of the stadium seating that your troop can use as your "home base" during the event. Bring your troop flag to mark your place. If you don't have a troop flag, you can make one that expresses your troop's personality.

Food: Hot dogs, hamburgers, and chicken options will be available. You will need to purchase your food tickets ahead of time. Only a limited amount of food will be available other than what has been pre-ordered. There will be ice cream and additional beverages available for sale.

No food or beverages can be brought into the ball park. If your group will not be eating at the ballpark, you can note that on the registration form.

Cost: $2 Gate Entry Fee is waived for all who register to attend on or before Saturday, September 8, 2007. Children under 3 • no gate entry fee. Food Ticket prices range from $6-$9 per meal.

How to Dress: Girl Scout apparel and sash/vest encouraged. Wear comfortable shoes and dress for the weather

Transportation/Parking: Check with your service unit to see if there is interest in chartering a bus. There are plenty of nearby downtown parking options..

Troop Leaders: Unless parents are accompanying the girls, you will need to use parent permission forms and meet the girls/adult ratio. Bring each girl's Health History Card with you. There will be a First Aid Station, staffed by EMTs at AutoZone Park, so you do not need a first-aider.

*Swaps are "Special Whatchamacallits Affectionally Pinned Somewhere."
